Sweet Rivers of Peace

Sweet Rivers of Peace, Sweet Rivers of Peace.
Where Love ever flows and grows to increase.
Sweet Rivers of Peace, Sweet Rivers of Peace
Where Joy always shows and knows to increase.

Sweet Rivers of Peace, Sweet Rivers of Peace
That flow from above and never will cease
Sweet Rivers of Peace, Sweet Rivers of Peace
That grow up inside and wait for release.

The Eyes of My heart

Ephesians 1:18

May the eyes of my heart see the richness of Your Glory
The Hope of Your calling and the greatness of Your Power
May the eyes of my heart catch a flash of Your story
Bringing victory to life and Your Ways to empower.

May the eyes of my heart see the gifts of Your Wisdom
And renew all my thoughts and desires of my heart
May the eyes of my heart know the depths of Your Kingdom
So my life will be changed by The Spirit You impart.

The Father Laughs

I heard The Father Laugh today, I heard the Father Laugh
He saw my worries and my cares, I heard The Father
Laugh
He told me that it all was well, I heard the Father laugh
He said to just relax, be still, I heard the Father laugh.

I heard The Father Laugh today, I heard the Father Laugh
He saw my doubts and all my fears, I heard The Father
Laugh
I looked right up into His Heart and saw it full of love
A smile appeared upon His Face and all my fears remove.

I heard The Father Laugh today, I heard the Father Laugh
He knows my future and goal, I heard The Father Laugh
So seek right now His Will be done, and listen for His
Laugh
Then all your trials and all your wars will crumble at His
Laugh

*So, when some sadness fills our soul,
Be still, Our Father's in control.*

This is the original thought! Not part of Song.

We looked through time, a giant we saw, I heard the
Father Laugh
A little boy came into view, and I heard the Father laugh.
A little stone was all he had but I heard the Father laugh
The giant was cursing God with all the words he knew
But the stone flew fast it's aim was true and I heard the Father laugh.

The Fire of God is coming into every life

The Fire of God is coming into every Life
Burning out all worries and the roots of strife
So, listen to God's Word and let its Truth be seen
Burning out all dross so all the life is clean.

The Fire of God is coming into every soul,
Bring in Obedience and making all things whole
Cleaning deep within and making sure the reason
For their life is ready to encounter this new season.

The Fire of God is coming into everybody
It will be seen and pure and certainly embody
That all of God's Ways that have been fully hid
Will be made clear and we'll see what Jesus did.

The Fire of God is coming

The Fire of God is coming I feel it in my bones
He is coming now in triumph, with deep and groaning tones

The Fire of God is coming with healing on His wings
Bringing lives to Glory, to all His Love He sings

*So bow you knees all ready
To show you mean to give
Allegiance to your Saviour
And for His purpose live.*

The Fire of God is coming, we must not be afraid
But open up our hearts. Atonement has been made!

The Fire of God is coming down from above
Surrounded with God's Glory. It is a Fire of Love.

The Holy Spirit came

The Holy Spirit came with Wind and tongues of Fire
He is The Father's Promise to fill us and inspire
For greater things are done as He fills us with His Power
To cleanse us with His Presence and every sin devour.

The Holy Spirit came with Wind and tongues of Fire
But not for us to sit around to watch and just admire
He comes for us to shed abroad God's Mercy and His Grace
That everyone may know His Love and all His Word embrace.

The Holy Spirit came with Wind and tongues of Fire
That each of us would know, we are God's one desire
He has a Plan for all, with a purpose and a goal
That everyone to be fulfilled and be made just and whole.

The Holy Spirit came with Wind and tongues of Fire
To fill us with His Peace, He is the one supplier,
He takes away the chains of fear and fills us with Christ's Love
He fills us with the Grace of God, it flows from Heaven above.

The Holy Spirit came with Wind and tongues of Fire
To move us in His Ways and lift our minds up higher.
That we might find in Him the strength to do The Father's Will
And show to all around He's our Peace and gives our hearts a thrill.

The Lord is the Strength

The Lord is the strength in the power of my song
His are the words, making me strong.
The Lord is the strength in the power of my song
His are the words, making me strong.

The Joy of The Lord's the power and the force
His Love and His Grace the life giving source
The Joy of The Lord's the power and the force
His Love and His Grace the life giving source

The Richness of the Poor

Lord open our eyes that we may see the Richness of the Poor.
As they go out and spread Your Love and all their fears ignore
And put aside the shame once felt and trust in Your embrace
Their lives now changed and show to all the Riches of Your Grace

Lord open our hearts so we can show the Richness of the Poor
So we can trust in You and Love You more and more.
For they have found that deep inside there is Your loving place
That all can share with those in need as doubts we do replace.

Lord help us take upon ourselves that Richness of the Poor
For there abounds within us all the power to wage the war
Your Spirit is alive in us to show that Richness of Your Grace
And take the plunge and now display Your Love upon our face.

The Rise of the Eagle Army

There is a mighty army soaring high above
Way beyond the storms of life, hiding in God's Love
Feeding on His Presence, learning from His Heart
Growing strong and steadfast, ready for their part.

*They are the Eagle Army, ready for the war
For a mighty battle as never seen before
They are the Eagle Army, waiting to restore
The Will of God upon the Earth that no one can ignore.*

Their strength is renewed as they listen to God's Word
Feeding on His Promises, their fighting spirit stirred.
Waiting for the sign that their eagle eyes detect
Discerning the prey, The Spirit does select.

*They are the Eagle Army, ready for the war
For a mighty battle as never seen before
They are the Eagle Army, waiting to restore
The Will of God upon the Earth that no one can ignore.*

Swooping from on high they focus on their call
To rid this world of evil, 'twill be a mighty brawl.
With all the power of Heaven in a bewildering attack.
Wining back the captives, restoring all the lack.

*They are the Eagle Army, ready for the war
For a mighty battle as never seen before
They are the Eagle Army, waiting to restore
The Will of God upon the Earth that no one can ignore.*

Pouncing with their strength obtained from on high.
With wings of great beauty so swiftly they fly
Their courage and their fervour all coming from their Lord.
The Victory obtained and Peace on Earth restored.

*We are the Eagle Army, ready for the war
For a mighty battle as never seen before
We are the Eagle Army, waiting to restore
The Will of God upon Earth that no one can ignore.
We are the Eagle Army, we're warriors to the core.
Diving from the heights with God's Spirit, our mentor.
We are the Eagle Army, there'll be a mighty roar
As Christ is made the Victor, the One we all adore.*

The Spirit has arrived

The Spirit has arrived to fill us with His Glory
To fill us with His Presence, and claim our territory.
He is the Father's Promise to release all Heaven's power.
To guide us on our journey, into this the final hour.

As His people He is in us and surrounds us to protect
He guides in our ways, for we are His elect
Giving Purpose to our lives and refreshing to our hearts
All the Love of The Father, The Spirit now imparts.

He makes His Truth alive, deep inside our being,
Then brings it to the surface as we speak the words agreeing
He's our Comforter and Guide, our bodies are His Temple
He drives out all our sin and makes our enemies to tremble.

The Spirit of the Living God, He dwells inside of me

The Spirit of the Living God, He dwells inside of me
I am a new creation; and changed for all to see.
The precious Blood of Jesus has changed my DNA
The old has gone forever the new has come to stay

The Spirit of the Living God, He dwells inside of me
He fills me with His Power and shows His Liberty
The goodness of His Loving Heart gives the best report
The blind will see, the deaf will hear, the lame won't need support.

The Spirit of the Living God, He dwells inside of me
To speak of all He's done for man, so making all men free
Peace and Joy will come to those that grieve upon the earth
He's changed my life and made me new, and given me new birth

“The veil is torn, it’s over to you.”

I want to enter Your Presence Lord
To love and make just You Adored.
I hear Your words so kind and true
“The veil is torn, it’s over to you.”

I cry and pray for You come
When all along the task is done
On the Cross Your action true
“The veil is torn, it’s over to you.”

I’m the one that needs to move
To finish with my worldly groove
To hear the words that come from You
“The veil is torn, it’s over to you.”

So now I come with contrite heart
To follow on and do my part
Through the veil I come to You
And prove to all Your words are true.

The Victory is Won.

Out from the rubble caused by the quake
Came the great sadness and the heartache.
Visions all broken, sadness was nigh,
But The Lord He was here and lifted us high.

*Loved by the Father, bought by The Son
Empowered by the Spirit, new life has begun.
Loved by the Father, bought by The Son,
Empowered by the Spirit, the victory is won*

The quake it was part of the Heavenly plan.
And from the great shake new life soon began.
Soon a fresh vision it came into view
The Lord He was here to make us all new.

*Loved by the Father, bought by The Son
Empowered by the Spirit, new life has begun.
Loved by the Father, bought by The Son,
Empowered by the Spirit, the victory is won*

So now it is plain for us all to see,
Lifting Jesus higher is the great key.
So we at Travis can take great delight,
For out of the gloom, Jesus is the pure light.

*Loved by the Father, bought by The Son
Empowered by the Spirit, new life has begun.
Loved by the Father, bought by The Son,
Empowered by the Spirit, the victory is won*

The Wonder of it all

Some look for God in Nature's forces
The mighty acts of thunder and storm
But miss the word breathed in the calm.
His touch that would their spirits warm.

*Oh the wonder of it all, the wonder of it all, as reverently we come
Right up into His presence with love we're overcome.
And we receive the Glory*

Folk listen for God in all the noise.
The loudness of their Praise
But fail to hear the still small voice
And the sweetness of His gaze.

*Oh the wonder of it all, the wonder of it all, as reverently we come
Right up into His presence with love we're overcome.
And we receive the Glory*

Many seek in signs and wonders
And look for Him to heal
When all along He just wants them
To in His Presence kneel.

*Oh the wonder of it all, the wonder of it all, as reverently we come
Right up into His presence with love we're overcome.
And we receive the Glory*

But simply come and worship with an open heart
Bowing to our God in absolute delight.
Then all our desires He'll lovingly give
Heaven's Will revealing, flooding down into sight.

*Oh the wonder of it all, the wonder of it all, as reverently we come
Right up into His presence with love we're overcome.
And we receive the Glory*

There is a cry arising

There is a cry arising, rising from the Land
It is a cry of freedom, free to make a stand
Against the ways of evil, the mocking of God's Word
Coming through the land, crying to be heard.

For Love will be victorious in this precious Land
The Spirit, He is moving, as was forever planned.
It is the cry for Jesus, Jesus as The Lord
The Saviour of the world, He's the One to be adored.

He is marching quickly on, to claim His Victory.
It is the Plan as shown, way back in history.
Love that spread so quickly, returning now, will last.
Coming from the Father's heart and healing all the past.

Listen to the cry all along the street
Spreading fast to all, we stop to talk and greet.
The poor and the hungry they are crying out His Name
For they are a reason that to the earth He came.

For freedom, and for justice is the cry we hear
All will come through Jesus as we hold Him dear
Moving now in power from the smallest places
From the poor and lowly, and with love on their faces.

There is a cry of Warning, to take God at His Word
But your eyes they do not see and your ears they have not heard.
Now's the time to humble and have a contrite heart
Confession and forgiveness must take a vital part.

*The Saviour of the World will reign throughout this land
Restoring Peace and Joy, and by God's Spirit fanned.
Confession and forgiveness, will come and take their stand
Guided all along by our Father's Loving Hand.*

There is some Gold

There is some Gold in every Life
Amidst the worries and the strife
So, seek the Gold, let it be seen
Bright and shiny, nice and clean.

There is some Gold in every soul,
Let them know they can be whole
And in fact, they have some reason
For their life in this new season.

There is some Gold in everybody
May it be seen and now embody
That all God's Ways are often hid
Until we see what Jesus did.

There's a New Move Coming

Wake up wake up there's a new move coming.
Different from the past and purely overcoming
Our God is revealing, secrets from His Heart
Bringing forth His mysteries, His Will to impart

Look out, look out it's coming like a surge
Cleansing all of life, wickedness to purge
At times with a whisper, others with a shout
Do not to be afraid, or try to work it out.

Draw near, draw near and listen for His cry
Do not miss out or let it pass by Looking ever to Jesus the author of it all
Bowing to His Glory and answering His Call.

Fear not, fear not, God's moving with power
Restoring His Will, this is a new hour
Don't fear the wonders The Spirit brings to hand
As He moves to restore His Will in our Land.

Be strong, be strong and let The Spirit move
He's coming now to all that I approve
Don't allow past customs to have control
Bring forth the power to the pure and the whole.

Wake up wake up there's a new move coming.
Different from the past and purely overcoming
Our God is revealing, secrets from His Heart
Bringing forth His mysteries, His Will to impart

There's Fire in my belly

There's Fire in my belly and Fire in my Soul
Cleansed from within and making me whole
There's Fire in my belly and Fire in my Soul
God gives me a purpose and shows me a role.

There's Fire in my belly and Fire in my Soul
Holy Spirit is within and has taken control
There's Fire in my belly and Fire in my Soul
So now I am alive and My God I extol.

Thoughts at the Burning Bush

I saw a burning bush
But it was not consumed
I heard the Voice of Holiness
My life is now resumed.

Fear has been replaced by Love.
My thoughts have been remade.
The Great I AM has spoken
So I am not afraid.

I heard of our deliverance
The foe would be no more.
I see my God's almighty strength
To open freedom's door.

Fear has been replaced by Love.
My thoughts have been remade.
The Great I AM has spoken
So I am not afraid.

Thoughts from Psalm 91

We hide in You O Lord, wrapped in Your loving arms
Even Your Shadow defends us, in You there are no harms
You are our hiding place, nothing can ever reach us
Your angels have their orders to constantly protect us

*We Trust in You Almighty God, We Trust in You
You are our Hope and Refuge, O Lord we trust in You.*

Foul words of accusation come flooding to our mind
But are soon overcome by Your Words so soft and kind.
Harm comes to many, but You're our Hiding Place
We are safe and secure as we stay in Your embrace.

Chorus.

Remaining within Your Love, You will always hear our call
No matter what our worries, they may be big or small
You promise You're always listening, because we know
Your Name
Our confidence is with You and You'll never allow us shame.

Chorus.

Because You're our delight, because you love us so,
We do not know the terror that comes from depths below
You are our Mighty Hero, You are our God Who cares
You see Your Hand protecting in all of our affairs.

Chorus.

Thoughts on Psalm 2

The Nations speak and Father, Son and Holy Spirit reply.

The rulers of the earth do say and plan it all together
We will rise up and take control; we'll control the weather!
Their foolish thoughts, their mocking ways will blow away like chaff
For in the Heavens looking down we hear The Father laugh.

He answers with a lightening bolt and an earthquake in reply
He wonders at their foolishness and cuts off His supply
He says, "It all has finished, My Son, He reigns on high
He is the Lord, The Saviour, He's the Apple of My Eye."

The Saviour's now upon The Throne and He looks down and says,
"I will be your shepherd and lead you through life's maze.
Just come to Me, I've paid the price, I'm the One Who pays.
My burdens are so light and so easy are My Ways"

The Spirit now comes down to earth to comfort and to warn,
That there's still time to worship God, to praise Him, not to scorn.
To remember all His Blessings but don't arouse His wrath
Or you'll soon need to bow the knee or cop the aftermath.

So looking back we now can see that there's a Blessing God
There are some laws we must obey and breaking them is odd
To Love and to cherish, they bring blessings as we give
To worship and give praise brings purpose as we live.

We know when things go up they then must come back down
And staying under water too long then everyone will drown.
Consequences will still apply to all we say and do
Our Loving God holds all creation altogether like a glue.

To prove that I love

I bring my Worshipping Love to You
You are my one desire
I bring my Worshipping Love to You
You set my heart on fire

With my Adoring Heart I come
And say I love just You
With my Adoring Heart I come
My life for You is true.

*To prove that I love, I'm willing to obey
To move into the battle, to enter in the fray.*

With my Obedient Mind I'm here
Asking what to do
With my Obedient Mind I'm here
And willing to see it through.

*To prove that I love, I'm willing to obey
To move into the battle, to enter in the fray.*

'twas on this Christmas Day

'twas on this Christmas Day
The Saviour Lord was born
Our God, He came to stay
And live amongst this scorn

'twas on this Christmas Day
His Love came down to earth
He came from Heaven to stay
And show to us our worth.

'twas on this Christmas Day
God opened up His Heart
'twas clearly on display
For us to take our part.

Up from the ashes of hatred and fear

Up from the ashes of hatred and fear
God sends His Love to hold you all near
The Son reigns supreme and wipes every tear
As you allow His Love to wipe every sneer.

Love and kindness are sent from on high
To give hope to all and hug every cry.
The sadness and loss will soon say good bye
As The Spirit empowers Gods Love to reply.

Love from The Father will spread all around
As joy and laughter combat every wound
Fresh hope will flourish and will soon abound
As Love spreads to all and gives a new sound.

Love will abound as we care for each other
Love is blind to differences of colour
Love never stops and never gets duller
Love makes us strong and fills us with wonder.

We are coming Lord

We are coming Lord, We are coming Lord,
Through the veil to meet with You.
And Oh the joy as we enter through
And prove to all Your Words are true

*We have heard Your Words so kind and true
“The veil is torn, it’s over to you”.*

We are here Lord, We are here Lord,
And all our efforts You soon subdue
When You our Lord come into view.
Your Love abounds and we’re made new.

*We have heard Your Words so kind and true
“The veil is torn, it’s over to you”.*

We are Marching

We are marching, We are marching, marching on to war
Fighting in His battle as never seen before
Going on to vict'ry, making sure it's won
In the Name of Jesus, Father's only Son.

We are marching, We are marching, marching on to war
Backed with the Angels, Angels by the score
With our eyes on Jesus, and our vision clear
Moving on in truth and not a sign of fear.

We are marching, We are marching, marching on to war
Shouting out in vict'ry, hear our mighty roar
Full of Holy Spirit, in His power we go
All the Love of Jesus to the world we show.

We are marching, We are marching, marching on to war
Moving in such Power, folks cannot ignore
Setting people free from their evil ways
Bringing life and freedom and to our Jesus praise.

We are the Warrior Bride

You have made us most Holy and clean
Changed right now and not as we've been.
We will forever be at Your side
For we are Yours, we are the Warrior Bride.

*We carry the Love of God, the Spirit by our side
We are the Loved of Christ, We are the Warrior Bride*

We are the Warriors in war against sin
Praying The Name of Jesus, all battles to win
We join with Angels in Heaven as they sing
We wait for the feast of the Lamb, He is the Bridegroom
King

*We carry the Love of God, the Spirit by our side
We are the Loved of Christ, We are the Warrior Bride*

We are made Righteous by Your shed Blood
And we have Joy coming in as a flood
Filled by Your Spirit and in You we abide
The Spirit and Bride say "Come", We are the Warrior Bride.

*We carry the Love of God, the Spirit by our side
We are the Loved of Christ, We are the Warrior Bride*

We come O Lord to worship

We come O Lord to worship, to praise and to adore
We know how much You love us and hear us yearn for more.
We so desire Your Presence and feel Your sweet caress.
You are our one desire and to Your Will we press.

We come O Lord to worship with an open heart
We give to You control, Your Will please now impart
We yield to You our visions, our dreams and our desires
Please come to us and light, Your pure and Holy fires

We come O Lord to worship, we give our all to You
We promise You our love and be forever true
So let Your Peace remain, and lead us to Your Will You're the One that keeps, us calm, steady and still.

We hear our Saviour Calling

We hear our Saviour calling from the Father's throne.
His voice of love is sharing all that He has done.
"My son and my daughter come and listen to my heart.
My life I give to you, My spirit to impart."

From Your loving heart creation was to dawn
Your plan for each of us, a vision soon was born
We're please just to come, with an open mind
We'll find that Your presence is Holy and most Kind.

The thrill of Your Voice comes clear through skies
It stirs up our hearts and makes our spirits rise
It opens up the wells of Your Presence deep within
And takes us on a journey of victories to win.

The scope of Your Call seems far beyond our thoughts
And soon our fears grow and turn our hearts in knots
But the sweetness of Your Voice gives the power to succeed
And then You provide all the things that we need.

We respond in Love to the vision for our lives
The Spirit stirs us up and our will soon revives
We move on to victory, Your Mission soon is clear
To show to the world, Your Love for them is near.

We join with the Angels

We join with the Angels to worship
We join them as they sing
The songs of praise and worship
To Jesus Christ our King.

We join them in abandoned love
To the Godhead, three in One
We join them at the Throne
For all that Love has won

They join with us in singing
Of Mercy revealed for us
Although we go astray
Forgiveness is our plus.

They do not know the freedom
And the pardon that we feel.
They join with us in Worship
And help us in our zeal.

We thank You Lord that You're in control

We thank You Lord that You're in control
You're taking over and we'll make our goal
You are doing the work behind the scenes.
You're in control is what it means.

We thank You Lord that You're in control
You've taken back what the enemy stole.
We must agree with Your Heavenly Word
And speak Your truth and make it heard.

We thank You Lord that You're in control
By Your Spirit we've been made whole
This truth we say, we do declare
We belong to You, we are Your heir.

We thank You Lord that You're in control
It's in Your Word, it's in the scroll.
The final word belongs to You
You're in control, now that is true.

We thank You Lord that You're in control
But in it all we have a role
To make this final verbal decree
You are my Lord, my family and me.

We Walk Together

We walk together in the morning Lord
The roses still have their dew
The roses still have their dew O Lord
The peace it is still new

It's You, it's You in my life O Lord
It's You, it's You it's You
It's You, it's You in my life O Lord
It's You, it's You it's You

We talk together in the Morning O Lord
Your Love sets me apart
And O the joy as we tarry there
Our bond as one we start

It's You, it's You in my life O Lord
It's You, it's You it's You
It's You, it's You in my life O Lord
It's You, it's You it's You

We worship You Lord

We worship You Lord in the Beauty of Your Holiness
We bow down before You and Glorify Your Name
We come as we are in all of our brokenness
Bringing to You our guilt and our shame.

We worship You Lord in the Beauty of Your Holiness
We come and Adore You and Your Love we proclaim
We come to You Lord in all of our loneliness
We come to Your Presence and our hearts You inflame.

We worship You Lord in the Beauty of Your Holiness
And listen to Your voice as it thunders through the skies
We hear Your loud voice as it shows forth Your Godliness
And have a fresh vision through our worshiping eyes.

*Glory, Glory, Glory to God of all Glory
Glory to our God Who reigns through the earth.
Glory, Glory, Glory to God of all Glory
Who gives us His Love and shows us our worth!*

What's so Good about Friday?

What's so Good about Friday?
It was on that day my Saviour died
If I'd been there, I would have cried
Holes in hands and feet couldn't hide
And a sharp sword hole into His side
What's so Good about Friday?

What's so Good about Friday?
Nailed upon a Cross up high
He was there for you and I
The Son of God He came to die
The Veil was torn, it's God's reply!
That's what Good about Friday!

What's so Good about Friday?
It's not the end of all we seek
Then something happened, it was unique
An empty tomb! They had a peak
"Where's His body," they did shriek!
That's what Good about Friday!

Today is called the "Good Friday"
So now you know the reason why
It is Good for you and I
He took our place, we can't deny
He died, Eternal Life to supply
So now we say, "Good Friday".

Who Am I?

Who do the people say I Am, who do the people say?
You are a Seer, that's come again is what the people say!
Who do the people say I Am, who do the people say?
You may be even cousin John, that's what the people say!
So now my friends, say who I am, please tell Me who I am
Messiah, Messiah! Our Peter says, the Living God's own Son
So now my friends, say who I am, please tell Me who I am
And we now say," Our Lord, Who saves, in You our victory's won."

*I know You are My Saviour, I know You are My Lord
I know You are The Christ, The Son of The Living God.
We know You are Our Saviour, We know You are Our Lord
We know You are The Christ, The Son of The Living God.*

What does The Bible say I am, what does the Bible say?
The Bible say You are The Word that came to earth to dwell
What does The Bible say I am, what does the Bible say?
The Bible says, our Prince of Peace, through Whom we can excel.
Who does The Father say I am, who does the Father say?
The Father says so loud and clear that You're His Beloved Son
Who does The Father say I am, who does the Father say?
The Father says to listen to You, that You're the only One.

*I know You are My Saviour, I know You are My Lord
I know You are The Christ, The Son of The Living God.
We know You are Our Saviour, We know You are Our Lord
We know You are The Christ, The Son of The Living God.*

Who is Worthy?

We look to Heaven and we see
The scrolls are closed, how can it be.
Who is worthy, who is worthy?
To open the scrolls for all to see?

We look around and none are free
To open the scrolls for all to see
Who is worthy, who is worthy?
To open the scrolls for all to see?

We see the Lamb, Jesus we see
Covered with Blood for you and me.
He is worthy, He is worthy
To open the scrolls for all to see!

Let praise and honour, and glory rain
Upon the Lamb for us was slain
He alone, He alone,
Can open the scrolls for all to see!

Wings of the Storm.

Come with the Eagles and soar through the sky
Soaring higher and higher on the Wings of the Storm.
Arising in Victory with plenteous supply
Soaring higher and higher on the Wings of the Storm.

With fears around us and doubts that deny
But a fountain of hope springs up to transform
As we rise up to Jesus our joy to comply
Soaring higher and higher on the Wings of the Storm.

Loved and cherished, embraced and accepted,
Seated with Jesus our lives to reform
Living on high and know we're accepted
Soaring higher and higher on the Wings of the Storm.

Dwelling above with the Heavenly Host
Knowing we never have to perform
Looking only to Jesus in Him we do boast
Soaring higher and higher on the Wings of the Storm.

Would you like to have a Father?

Would you like to have a Father who is forever near?
Who always cares for you and will always love you dear?
One who has a great desire to see that you succeed?
The one that provides for all that you will ever ever need?

There is gracious Father that is forever near
Who always cares for you and always loves you dear.
He is the mighty Father, the creator of the world,
Who from the dark and emptiness all life He soon unfurled.

He is the Loving being, the creator of all life,
Who brings to you all comfort and saves you from the strife.
He is the One who loves you and desires your very best
Who from the trials of life, He brings to you your rest.

Way back before all time began, He looked down through the ages
He saw your life emerge, from its beginning and all the stages
He loved you from the start and arranged a master plan
That you could join His Family, yes a member of His Clan.

This Father now is waiting to see what choice You'll make
For in His love, freewill is given, but will His Love you take?
He's waiting now with open arms and a smile upon His Face
Longing to give to you a life of endless grace.

So please accept His offer, it is your total choice.
Then all of Heavens Family and the Angels will rejoice.
As you come into a Family that always loves you dear.
The Father, Son and Spirit that'll forever hold you near.

You are Faithful

You are Faithful, You are Truthful
You are Righteous in all of Your ways
You are Faithful, You are Truthful
You are Holy in all of Your days,

You are Mighty, You are Awesome
You're Supreme in all that You do
You are Mighty, You are Awesome
You're sure to see it though

You are Glorious, You're Wonderful
You are Loving, and so Kind
You are Glorious, You're Wonderful
You are my peace of Mind.

You are the Christ,

Who do the people say I Am? You asked us on that day.
You are a Seer, that's come again, or even cousin John,
Some even think You are so false, even be a con
But we do know You are The Christ, that is what we do
say!

*You are the Christ, You are the Christ.
The Son of the Living God.
You are the Christ, You are the Christ.
The Son Who saved my life.*

So now my friends, say who I am, please tell Me who I am
Messiah, Messiah! Our Peter says, the Living God's own
Son
But we do know You are The Christ, that is what we do
say!
And we now say," Our Lord, Who saves, in You our victory's won."

Jesus, He whispered into my heart
"Please tell me Who I am to you."
Then words replied from my deepest part
"You are The Christ Who makes me new"

*You are the Christ, You are the Christ.
The Son of the Living God.
You are the Christ, You are the Christ.
The Son Who we applaud*

Jesus, He whispered again to me,
"My Father shared to you that word.
That you might live and be set free.
Now spread around all you have heard."

Jesus, He whispers into our heart
"Please tell me Who I am to you."
Then words replied from our deepest part
"You are The Christ Who makes us new"

*You are the Christ, You are the Christ.
The Son of the Living God.
You are the Christ, You are the Christ.
The Son Who we applaud*

Jesus, He whispers again to all,
“My Father shared to you that word.
That you might live and never fall.
Now spread around all you have heard

You have set Your People free

We sing a Song to You O Lord
For You have set Your People free
We do exalt Your Name O Lord
The horse and rider die in the sea.

You are our strength, You are our song
For You have set Your People free
Your mercy came when we did wrong
So we bow down on bended knee.

O God You are so holy and true
For You have set Your People free
You are our God, we give You praise
You are our God, we all agree

You are the One Almighty God
For You have set Your People free
We shout Your Name to all abroad
We come and worship only Thee.

Great and marvellous are all Your deeds
For You have set Your People free
Right and true are all Your ways,
Now lead us on is our last plea.

You Love me

I walk as in a dream Lord, looking at Your face
Your Love is all I need Lord, it fills me with Your grace.
I am ready now O Lord, to do what You desire
Walking at Your side Lord, I never will retire

*I come to You my Lord, responding to Your love
Just to say I love You to with guidance from above.*

You love me Lord You Love me, words cannot explain
The reasons that You Love are true and do remain.
You love me Lord, it's real, I know that it is right
With great delight You Love with all Your heavenly might

*I come to You my Lord, responding to Your love

You'll be wonderfully Blessed
As you come through the veil, I'll guarantee

Your Glory

We want to host Your Glory that all around may see
The beauty of Your Presence that reigns so fresh and free
We want to host Your Glory that changes can be made
That Love will abound and none will be afraid.

We want to host Your Glory that way deep, deep inside
Your Will and Your Ways, they'll rush to be our guide.
We want to host Your Glory That Your Love for all will shine
That all the world will see Your beauty is all divine.

I want to host Your Glory that my life will shine for You
That all will see Your Love, that You will come in view
I want to host Your Glory that forgiveness will be seen
That all of those around , their lives will be made new.

We come into Your Presence that we might know You more
To be hosts of your Glory and that none can ignore.
We come into Your Presence and bow with bended knee
And worship at Your Throne and be forever free.
