A Blessing Song.

We sing a Blessing now to all who worship here
His Love will fill their minds and every thought be clear.
We bring the Peace of God to fill each open heart
And Joy will find it's way to every deepest part

That health and peace will flow from our Father's Heart
To bring His healing love and pleasure to impart
That Hope and His desire will thrill their hungry core
Their worship here will bring a deep desire for more.

We praise and worship God from whom all blessings flow
Our hearts we open wide to all the Peace we know
We now decree His Love will settle every care
And all will look for ways His love and mercy share

A New Sound is Coming.

A new sound is coming; it's different from before
It is the sound of Victory, the winning of the War
A proclamation has been made to the spirit realm
That Jesus died upon the Cross to rise and overwhelm

Chorus

*It comes as we remember all that He has done
We take the Bread and drink the Wine the Victory has been won.
It comes as we remember all that He has done
We take the Bread and drink the Wine the Victory has been won.*

He's risen to our Father to rule us from on high
He left for us His Spirit, so greater things are nigh

Chorus

*It comes as we remember all that He has done
We take the Bread and drink the Wine the Victory has been won.
It comes as we remember all that He has done
We take the Bread and drink the Wine the Victory has been won.*

A Singing in my Belly

May the eyes of my heart see the richness of Your Glory
The Hope of Your calling and the greatness of Your Power
May the eyes of my heart catch a flash of Your story
And bring all my life Your victory to flower.
May the eyes of my heart see the gifts of Your Wisdom
And renew all my thoughts and desires of my heart
May the eyes of my heart know the depths of Your Kingdom
So my life will be changed by The Spirit You impart.

Chorus

*There's a singing in my belly that's encountering Your Kingdom.
Breaking right through as You move in my heart.
Renewing my senses to the move of Your Presence
Bringing new life and Your Love to impart.*

May the ears of my being hear the softness of Your voice
To obey all You say so all is well with my soul
Let my thoughts that I hear deep inside have a choice
To complete all Your Plans so making me whole.
May the ears of my being seek knowledge from You Lord
Paying attention to the songs that sing in my heart
So the poor may be heard and are not ignored
May the things that I hear bring a Blessing to impart.

Chorus

May I taste with my mouth and know that You're Good
As honey on my lips are Your words to my life.
May the taste of Your kindness help me do all I should
And the taste in my mouth break down any strife.
May I taste in my mouth the nectar of peace,
From reading Your Word and letting it rule
May the taste of Your Love just grow and not cease.
But bitter in my mouth are words of the fool.

Chorus

May the scent of Your Knowledge lead me on to success.
And the smell in my nostrils show how great is Your Will Breathing in all the healing of Your sweetness to bless
And the aroma of Your Presence bring peace, keep me still.
May the scent of Your Knowledge allow me on to hear
All the ways that You guide and make Your Will known
The sweet flavour of Your Presence lets me know that You're near
Let the prayers in my heart rise as incense to Your Throne.

Chorus

May the heat of Your touch bring miracles to life
And the spark of our Presence allow me to move
To break all the barriers of doubts and all strife
To prove to all the power of Your Love
May the heat of Your touch help me know that You're near
And feel Your Spirit that is moving in me.
May Your touch bring a thought that is ever so clear
That drowns out division and makes all agree.

Chorus

This Poem, as a Prayer, came after our Church had some studies helping us move in the Prophetic realm.
We were encouraged to use the spiritual aspects of our natural 5 senses.

At the start I thought I would write 4 lines on each of the 5 senses.

But I couldn't stop! I "found" I needed 8 lines to finish the "eyes of my heart".

Meaning to keep the balance I then had to have 8 lines on each of the other 4!

Over the following early hours, ie 2am to 4am, I was, easily, able to write the whole Poem!

This was Not something I could do under my own strength or ability.

My prayer now is that readers will also use this as their own prayer.

A Sound from Heaven reaching Earth.

I've heard the songs of Heaven coming down to earth
The songs of Love are present sowing seeds for birth
The Spirit bringing life and flesh to these dry bones.
New life it's coming turning smiles from the moans

The songs of love are near overcoming all the past
Forgiveness it is reigning and confessions that will last
The Joy that's found in Heaven is spreading all around
The Peace of God the Father is now the leading sound.

Abiding in the Vine.

Abiding in the Vine, Abiding in the Vine.
I am a branch abiding in the Vine.
Abiding in the Vine, Abiding in the Vine.
That's way we're made, it is the grand design.

Abiding in the Vine, Abiding in the Vine.
Now the growth begins, abiding in the Vine.
Abiding in the Vine, Abiding in the Vine.
Now the fruit can grow, it is a healthy sign.

Accelerated healings

Accelerated healings are coming to the fore
Because God loves us and our desire for more
The Holy Spirit gives a Word that springs up into life
Breaking down the walls of doubts, all pain and every strife.

Accelerated healings that smash all barriers down
Leading us to receive and take the Victors Crown.
Bringing to the “Now” the health created in the “Past”
Bringing forth the miracles and signs that will most truly last.

Accelerated healings must be taken in “the Now”
Making changes to our lives and never question how?
Bringing all of “Yesterday” into our lives “Today”
Receiving from The Healer, take it fast and don’t delay.

Accelerated healings bring Glory to our Lord
For Jesus is the Only One to be Worshipped and Adored
Moving fast to Him, as quickly as we can,
With expectation in our hearts to receive the healing plan.

Activate us Lord

Activate us by the Heavenly Sounds
Activate us by Your Sounds O Lord
That we might hear where Your Love abounds
That we might hear Your Heavenly chord.

Activate us by the Heavenly Speech
Activate us by Your Speech we hear
That we might learn the Truths they teach
And receive the life we hold so dear.

Activate us by the Heavenly Word
Activate us by the words we read
That we might know the Truth we've heard.
Receiving in ourselves all that we need.

All Creation is alive with the sound of music

All Creation is alive with the sound of music, rising up to worship You
But in amidst their joyful song they have a cry to be made new
Waiting for the Sons of God to be revealed, to come to view
Longing for their former glory to rise from death to their breakthrough.

All Creation is alive with the sound of music, but they hope to be restored
For too long it's been forgotten, the blessings of the past ignored.
Waiting for the Sons of God to come alive and take their place
To take control, to move in the power, to overcome, to shine with Grace.

All Creation is alive with the sound of music, all alive in a minor key
How they groan to break from sadness, how they groan to be set free.
May their groans come to an end, so their music may rise in glory
With joy and gladness to all creation, singing out to complete the story.

All Creation is alive with the sound of music, may we join to complete their song.

Breaking out from sinful chains, to join with Nature who did no wrong.
Listening to the merry sounds of rippling brooks and gentle rain.
To joining with all Creation, to use authority and rule again.

Thoughts from Romans 8:19-21.

Revised 5th June, 2019

As we allow Your Glory to shine.

Your kisses Lord are sweeter than honey
And Your smile Lord is simply divine
And these, they cost no money
As we allow Your Glory to shine.

As we allow Your Glory to shine, O Lord
As we allow Your Glory to shine
Your kisses are sweeter than honey, O Lord
As we allow Your Glory to shine

Your ways Lord are perfect and right
Your thoughts are higher than mine
You turn my darkness to light
As we allow Your Glory to shine.

As we allow Your Glory to shine, O Lord
As we allow Your Glory to shine
Your kisses are sweeter than honey, O Lord
As we allow Your Glory to shine

Be Still my Soul

Be still my soul, be still.
My Father's in control.
He has my front, He has my back
I have it all, I have no lack!
Be still my soul, be still.
My Father's in control.

© Alan Watkinson 2nd December 2017

Be still my soul, be still.
My Father's in control.
He's always there to keep me near
And keep me free from any fear
Be still my soul, be still.
My Father's in control.

Communion

A sound of Proclamation is going through the Land
We eat the Bread and drink the wine and vict'ry is at hand
We make the declaration that on the cross He died
And to all "It's Finished ", are the words He cried

It is an affirmation, He died and arose again
It took three days and over hell He does forever reign.
And Death it was defeated and now has lost it's sting.
Eternal life is open now to those their hearts they bring

We're blessed as we share the Bread, we are blessed, we are blessed

We're blessed as we share His Blood, we are blessed, we are blessed

We speak into the spirit realm that life begins anew.
Our Christ has won, and perfect Peace is here for me and you
The Father's gift has come and in His power we go
The Spirit's here to stir us on, His Love for all to show

© Alan Watkinson 14th October 2017

We are blessed as we remember His body sacrificed for us as we eat the bread
We are blessed as we remember His Blood shed for as we drink the wine.

Daddy, Daddy

Daddy, Daddy you're my Hero
Daddy, Daddy you're my Friend
Daddy, Daddy I will love You
From tomorrow till the end.

Daddy, Daddy I'm just a child
Daddy, Daddy I trust just You
Daddy, Daddy I hear Your Heart
And Your Words are always true

Daddy, Daddy I know You love me
Daddy, Daddy I'll be like You
Daddy, Daddy You'll help me grow
To be a Christian good and true.

Daddy, Daddy I see You smile
Daddy, Daddy I depend on You
Daddy, Daddy You have said it
So I know it must be true.

Dance with the Angels.

Come and join together and have a little fun
And dance with the Angels, I'll show how it's done
Just close your eyes and relax it is an easy task
Now join and swirl around, and in their love we'll bask

*It is a thrill to join in the Angel dance
To swirl around together in a graceful prance
It is a thrill to join in the Angel dance
It helps as we worship and does our thrill enhance.*

Come on up into, the Heavenlies with me
We'll join with Angels, it will our spirits free.
It is a way to worship as we sing with our chants
To join with the Angels in their graceful dance

The Angels like to join us as they dance and sing
To the Almighty God and to the Saviour King.
And we will see the pleasure that it always brings
To our Lord and Master, to the King of kings.

To dance with the Angels is a graceful task
But we're down on earth are the words you ask
But you see it is easy for we don't have to die
Just imagine you're in Heaven, right up in the sky.

So join our hands together and look into their eyes
The Angels will guide us as upward we rise
Right up to them before, the Heavenly Throne
To dance with the Angels in their graceful zone.

*It is a thrill to join in the Angel dance
To swirl around together in a graceful prance
It is a thrill to join in the Angel dance
It helps as we worship and does our thrill enhance.*

Don't despise the Little Things

We thank You for the little things You give to us each day
The little things just appear before we even pray.
Yet blessed by the abundance of Your Love, dear Lord
These little things, they soon increase to a size overboard.

And increased still again by the richness of Your Grace
Those little things, we note, now grow at a greater pace.
So the things that were so small are now a mighty size
Show that Your Love and Grace give the increase as the prize.

We don't despise the little things that appear before we even pray
They're the seeds that grow and grow, we won't send them away.
But bring them to the refreshing Love and to the power of Grace
We watch in awe as they increase and Your Presence we embrace.

“Don’t limit Me”.

Deep in our heart these words we hear,
But let them slide because of fear.

“Don’t limit Me”, our Father says
Yet the sparks are there to set ablaze.

“Don’t limit Me”, we know it’s true
But we’re not sure just what to do.
We dream about what it could be
But what to do? now that’s the key!

It only needs, some faith to take
Then all a sudden a great outbreak
Right into the Will our Father planned
Far greater than our thoughts could stand.

So put away all thoughts of failure
And look instead to our Loving Saviour
To lead us on with power and might
Then the limitless plan comes into sight.

*“Don’t limit Me”, “Don’t limit Me”,
Just make the move, “Don’t limit Me”,
“Don’t limit Me”, “Don’t limit Me”,
Far greater things you then will see.*

© Alan Watkinson, 22nd April, 2018.

These thoughts came after hearing a message on “Daystar”
by Andrew Wommack on “Don’t Limit God”.

Earth is not my Home,

Earth is not my Home, I'm from another Kingdom
By the Spirit I do roam to speak of total freedom;
I have His authority, through the power of The Word
For now it's my priority, to make His message heard.

*Earth is not my Home, I'm from another Kingdom
Moving in His power, His strength and His wisdom
Earth is not my Home, I'm from another Kingdom
Moving in His power, His strength and His wisdom.*

I am alive in Christ, wrapped up in arms of Love
Chosen as His own and risen with Him above.
His Spirit lives in me to perform His healing ways
For action and results through worship, prayer and praise.

I'm on the winning side and victory is mine
As I trust in God alone and His Victory assign
Looking for His Spirit to guide and to move
To bring His power from Heaven and evil to remove.

Eighty years on

Eighty years on and getting a bit older
Our lives move just softer but bolder
And the Spirit is flowing stronger not colder
As we rest in Love upon Christ's shoulder.

Eighty years on and our life keeps flowing
For in Christ's Love it always keeps growing
The heart is there and our words are glowing
As we rest in Love, it just keeps showing.

Eighty years on as our lives get slower
The Truth of The Word it just gets clearer
And speaking God's Word goes on with power
As we rest in Love as Christ gets nearer.

Focussing

We are focussing Lord, focussing on Your Presence
We are focussing Lord, focussing on Your Face
We are focussing Lord, knowing Your omnipresence
We are focussing Lord, on Your Love and Grace.

*Lord Jesus we focus on You and our lives will glow
Lord Jesus we focus on You and Your Ways we'll know
Lord Jesus we focus on You and Your Love will show
Lord Jesus we focus on You and Your Power will flow.*

We are focussing Lord, knowing that You're near
We are focussing Lord, feeling You change our life
We are focussing Lord, coming close without a fear
We are focussing Lord, with rest and no strife.

Fill me with Your Presence Lord as I focus my life on You
Bring Your Glory to those around as You make my life all new
The fragrance of Your Presence changing all that come to view
Keeping me in Your Will O Lord and all my thoughts keep true.

Two thoughts in response to a Sermon by Paster Cam,
Illuminate Church.

Fully submit to Jesus Christ

Fully submit to Jesus Christ
His Love for you cannot be priced
He is the Lord o'er all the earth
Yet He was born of mortal birth.

Humble every part to Him
Give Him all not just a whim
Give your Spirit, Soul and Body
And don't be mean or ever shoddy

Bow down in full surrender.
Very soft and very tender
Humble every part,
All your thoughts and your heart.

Bow down on bended knee
Let forgiveness be your only plea
Then He will cleanse your every part
Heal you soul and even your heart

All emotions and all your mind,
All your will for He is kind
He will renew you deep within
And in the end, it is your win.

Then you'll be clean and be made free.
And Heaven will be your Guarantee
So now tell others, let them rejoice
Lead them on to make their choice

And then you will encounter,
The Spirit and all His power
He will be a Loving guide
And will always be at your side.

Speak my Lord, I'm listening, the young boy Samuel said
He'd heard the calling voice, so he got out of bed.
I hear the Father calling arise and follow me
I have a rhyme for you to write a rhyme for all to see.
